Informational note to Saint Petersburg clients

On December 28, 2007, the Swiss authorities have designated Flybaboo SA as the operating carrier on the Geneva – Saint-Petersburg route. After having all required formalities, Flybaboo SA launched its first flight on Tuesday May 27, 2008 as planned.

This flight has not received the clearance from Moscow for his departure from Geneva claiming uncompleted documentation; despite the intervention of the Swiss Authorities and the Swiss Embassy in Moscow.

Flybaboo SA therefore had to cancel the May 27 flight and under the inability to solve the situation in due time, the flights on Saint Petersburg only, are therefore suspended.

Flybaboo SA still has the firm intention to operate the flights from Geneva to Saint Petersburg and vice-versa every Tuesdays, Thursdays and Sundays and commits to inform its clients as soon as the Saint-Petersburg flights will be able to operate.

We kindly apologise for any burden this situation may cause.
